

Bhadrak Railway Station

1.Brief Description

Bhadrak, is a city of Odisha state in eastern India. The city is the district headquarters of Bhadrak District. According to legend, the Railway Station and City derives its name from the Goddess Bhadrakali, whose temple is on the banks of the Salandi River. Bhadrak Railway Station is a Class category (At present NSG-3) Station of Khurda Road Division of East Coast Railway in Indian Railway. An average foot fall of 5,000 nos. are dealt here on daily basis. Agriculture is the main source of income of the District. Paddy is grown as the main crop in Kharif, covering approximately 94 Percent of the total cultivable area. Bhadrak District has some big industries like FACOR, one of the largest manufacturers of quality Ferro Chrome in the country and a large number of small industries like AB Electricals, Abhigoura Rice Mill and Alok Nath Ice Factory etc. The State famous Kalipuja Festival is held every year and pilgrims from various part of the Odisha district come to have a glimpse of Kalipuja with religious fervor.