Commercial Circular No. 99 (GC)/2011

Sub: Transportation of relief materials to flood affected region of West Bengal:
free of charge.

Ministry of Railways have decided that relief material like food –stuff, medicines, clothes, building materials etc, will be carried free by coaching trains & goods trains from any station on Indian Railways to any station in West Bengal for distribution among the flood affected population for two weeks. The relief material will be consigned to the District Magistrate of the concerned district /relief commissioner of the state on production of a certificate from the consignor that the consignment is a gift in kind or has been purchased with the funds donated by public for flood victims & has not been paid for by the Government or its agencies. No claim for any loss or damage to consignment carried under this arrangement will be entertained unless it is clearly proved that the loss or damage took place due to willful negligence on the part of the Railway.

This issues with the concurrence of the Finance Directorate of the Ministry of Railways.

Necessary instruction may be issued to all concerned immediately.

Matter most urgent.

All concerned to note and act accordingly.
