

EAST COAST RAILWAY WOMEN'S WELFARE ORGANIZATION

MANCHESWAR

East Coast Railway Women's welfare organization (ECoRWWO), Mancheswar, is dedicated to the welfare of Railway employees and their family in particular, and to the society and local community in general welfare activities.

While the officers of Mancheswar Workshop put their best efforts in improving the performances and work environment, their better halves team together to bring smile to the family members of the Railway Staff by undertaking various welfare activities

The women welfare organization played an active role to bring in and nourish hopes during the formative years of the workshop in the isolated township of Mancheswar, yet to be touched by development.

The activities of the women welfare organisation grew from strength to strength over the years. With formation of new zone, East Coast Railway, the organisation got a further impetus to carry forward its activities.

East Coast Railway Women's Welfare Organisation (ECoRWWO), Mancheswar is particularly playing a key role in the welfare of workshop staff and their families.

The organisation is making significant contribution towards all –round development of children by inspiring and encouraging their talent in various fields. It runs "Sishu Niketan" which provides quality education from nursery to UKG at a very nominal fee. The care taken at "Sishu Niketan" during the crucial formative years of the children ensures laying of strong foundation for future development and character building.

Recently, Extension of Sishu Niketan was completed and additional classrooms and a hall for playing of children was added. Shishu niketan now has probably the best playground in the vicinity for small children.

School of Music and Dance imparts training in Hindustani Classical Vocal Music, Tabla, Odissi dance and contemporary Dance.

The organization also runs School of Arts. Inner urge to express oneself through drawing is honed to develop children as artists and better citizen.

Various competitions are organized in drawing, painting and essay writing in various age group for the children of the area. This recognizes the talent and encourages children to further their interest.

The organization comes forward and brings succor and hope to the distressed people by extending services during natural calamities, like floods and cyclones that affect the coastal belt of Orissa frequently.

Some of the other welfare activities undertaken by the organization are summer Camps for children imparting short term courses on music, dance, art etc. This helps in gainfully engaging the children during holidays in furthering their interest.

Apart from these, fruits, and food items are distributed to needy on important days like Independence Day & Republic Day.

Independence Day, Teachers Day, Children's Day Saraswati Puja, Republic Day, Sport day, Annual day are some of the events celebrated with great fanfare at various centers run by ECoRWWO, MCS.

Due to keen initiative of ECoRWWO Mancheswar, one children park has been developed in the colony area for recreation of the staff and their family members. The members of ECoRWWO has taken special interest in maintenance of staff quarters and their problems. Every month inspection is conducted by members and feedback is given directly to concerned official. This has resulted in increase in happiness quotient of the residence of Mancheswar colony.

ECoRWWO Mancheswar in future plans to take many more such initiatives for welfare of staff and women empowerment. Further, it is planned to organise carrier information programmes, cleanliness and hygiene of home and surrounding etc. to name a few.

There is no end to the path of charity and welfare. Whatever little efforts are made to spread a smile little wider, it deepens the satisfaction and motivate to move ahead with more dedication.

President, ECoRWWO visiting Shishu Niketan on 27.08.2013

Independence Day Prize Distribution 15.08.2013

Independence Day Fancy Dress 15.08.2013

Shishu Niketan

ECoRWWO, Mancheswar Annual Function on 15.12.2012

Play Area