Sub: Instructions for system improvement and speedy disposal of DAR cases pending with the Indian Railways (Railway Board & Zonal Railways).

The Ministry of Railways has expressed concern over the delay in the disposal of the disciplinary cases and directed that the following instructions scrupulously be implemented for their disposal, in a time bound manner:-

- I. There shall be no pendency on part of Indian railways at any level in finalization and disposal of Disciplinary proceedings. Cases pending for want of CVC/UPSC advice shall be chased vigorously so as to ensure timely conclusion.
- II. There shall be no negligence what so ever on the part of Indian Railways and the controlling officers shall scrupulously monitor the matters.
- III. All cases pending beyond two years at all levels shall be finalized and disposed of as per rules through special drive within this calendar year.
- IV. All cases where Charge Sheets have not been served, the same shall be done within 15 days. Otherwise reasons shall be recorded and got approved by the Competent Authority.
- V. The Vigilance Dte. and the concerned departments should closely work to ensure timely disposal.
