Serious managerial failures in response to accident with Train no.18005 Samaleswari Express between Singapur Road 'A' Cabin - Keutiguda on 25.06.19 have been alarming. Despite stipulations in Accident Manual and Railway Act, the division's performance was unsatisfactory. This despite detailed telephonic instructions through PCSO continuously.

9/9

It is once again reiterated that the following must be ensured in future accidents :-

1. Immediately on occurrence of an accident, guard/loco crew/ticket checking staff/any other railway staff on board, in this order, must inform stations at both ends and Divisional Control about the accident.
2. Immediately on receipt of such information, Station Masters must activate laid down procedures and ensure safety of all trains in their vicinity. SPART/ARME/ART must be ordered without delay.

3. Divisional control must promptly inform DRM, Sr.DOM, Sr.DSO and other branch officers.

4. All branch officers must promptly report to Control. Officers in-charge of SPART/ARME/ART must report there.

5. Sr.DSO will immediately depute a counsellor to Control and Sr.DOM will depute a TI. Both these shall ensure recording of a chronological log of events and details. DRM/ADRM/Sr.DOM/Sr.DSO shall promptly inform Central Control, PCSO, Secy. to GM, PCOM and other P/CHODs.

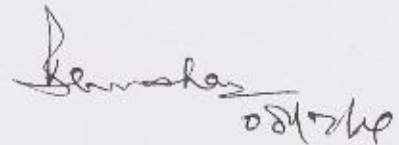

6. DRM will promptly direct officers to move to site as per need. It is reiterated that in case of accidents involving coaching trains, DRM has to move to site. Senior-most official at site shall immediately act as the Site-Incharge.

7. Station Masters of stations on either side of site shall immediately order and mobilize all local resources like ambulances, medical aid, buses, autos, foodstuff, water, etc.
8. Sr.DCM and CMS must ensure that every passenger on the train is accounted for. Details of injured/grievously injured/dead must be promptly relayed to divisional and central control.
9. Sr.DPO and CMS shall immediately act to assist the injured despatched to hospitals from site.
10. Section 9 of Railway Act specifies that the Railway Administration shall provide all requisite facilities to CRS or Inquiry Committee to conduct an inquiry effectively. DRM/ADRM are personally responsible to ensure this. Facilities like stenos, protection from natural elements, tea, snacks, meals etc. must be made available to CRS or Inquiry Committee. This covers both, site visit as well as Inquiry Committee proceedings at any location.

PCSO will monitor and report non-compliance of the above. These instruction will take immediate effect.
