

CHATRAPUR RAILWAY STATION

1. Brief Description

Chatrapur railway station is one of two railway station in Chatrapur, this being the main railway station in Ganjam district, Odisha with station code is CAP. The main station is consisting of four platforms. There is a pedestrian bridge, for the passenger to stay in retiring rooms. The dormitory facility is also available. The Chatrapur town is a municipality in Ganjam district in the state of Odisha, India. Chatrapur is the administrative capital of Ganjam and the gateway to south odisha, and has a well developed transportation network. All express trains halt here. Chatrapur railway station is situated on the East Coast Railway main-line which is a major route connecting the two metros Kolkata and Chennai of India. It is directly connected to New Delhi, Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Brahampur, Chennai, Mumbai, Pune, Puri, Vishakhapatnam, Hyderabad, Kolkata, Raipur, Sambalpur and many more cities of India. Bhubaneswar-Chatrapur connectivity (DMU) is popular means to reach capital city Bhubaneswar. Some of the tourist places are situated near this station, Gopalpur-sea Beach, Tara Tarani Temple, Chilika,Panchama –Sidhi Vinayak temple,Bhairavi Temple,Mahendragiri hills.