

Brahmapur Railway Station

1. Brief Description

Brahmapur well known as “The Silk City”, is a city on the eastern coastline of the state of Odisha. Brahmapur Railway Station is one of the oldest Railway Station of Khurda Road Division, East Coast Railway .This station is classified as NSG-3 Category Station earlier categorized as ‘A’ category station. An average foot fall of 12,000 nos. are dealt here on daily basis. It is one of the major hub for Education & Business (food and garment) and railway provide hassle-free connectivity to this place .Brahmapur is famous for its tourist attraction. Tara Tarini an ancient Shakti peetha, Breast shrine of Adi Shakti and one amongst the 4 major Shakti Peethas in India is 25 km from the city. In addition, the world famous Gopalpur-on-Sea sea beach, Bhairabi & Mahurikalua temples, and Tampara lake are around 10km from the city. The famous Chilka Lake at Rambha and Taptapani Hot Springs are around 45 km from the city. It is silk city so silk products are cheap and readily available. This place is also famous for a variety of Pickles, Mixtures and Papped.